SARATOGA

HIGH

SCHOOL

Look! This is Saratoga High,
The best school, in our opinion.
We dread the day we say good-bye,
And live away from its' dominion.

In various groups of Saratoga you will hear the praise of a former teacher Miss Vesta King. She will be remembered for her remarkable sense of humor, foresight, understanding and the ability to convey that understanding into much appreciated advice. For her excellent job as teacher and advisor the class of 1951 wishes to express the appreciation of students and alumni of Saratoga High School to Miss King for all she has done for them.

SENIOR CLASS POEM

We, the Seniors of Fifty-one,
Have at last the victory won,
We've gone through twelve long years of learning,
Now we're ready to do what our hearts are yearning.

Clyde Carpenter, the penny pinching kid,
Who none of us would like to be rid.
He's the president of our class and has a bashful smile,
He drives his big blue Pontiac many a mile.

Johnny Ashley, our big lover boy,
To certain girl, is a bundle of joy,
This special girl at Madison School,
When their married, I'll bet, the roost will rule.

The pretty brunette in the senior class,
Hazel Cook, is a well liked lass.
She usually does her lessons well,
She'll further her learning the future will tell.

Carol, our pumpkin queen this year,
To a handsome boy is very dear.
No matter how rough life gets with fury,
She'll never have grey from excessive worry.

Elinor's nearly married we hear,
It will probably happen by the end of the year.
When she's married and has a home of her own,
She and Chuok won't live alone.

Handsome and curly headed is he,
Howard some day a coach will be.
His favorite sport is basketball,
In Toga He's the best player of all.

Janet Lyons is the hard working one,
She doesn't quit till the job is done.
For the senior class she's done much work,
Because she isn't one to shirk.

Betty is the new member in the senior class,
She moved up here from the cotton mass.
She's already married to a southern man.
The northerns don't oook the way she can.

Helen is bashful and has rosy cheeks,
She always tells the truth when she speaks.
She'll make a good wife for a man some day,
If he can persuade her the word to say.

Maratha has the best personality of all,
When things go wrong, she doesn't complain at all.
She likes home ec. and always looks neat;
For some lucky man she can't be beat.

Sometimes Bob's not there when class begins,
But he usually is before it ends.
He likes very much to play basketball,
Even though in a game, he gets many a fall.

When there's work for the class to do,
Barbars is there to help see it through.
She's done her share to earn our money,
Maybe that's the reason she's Jack's honey.

Clyde Carpenter

Saratoga, Indiana
December 11, 1960

One morning I was surprised to receive a letter from my long-lost brother, Clyde Carpenter, who on having moved to New York 10 years ago, had become a manager of a television station SHS, which is located in New York. This station is a world wide network. Clyde also said he owned other small stations over the country. I was informed in this letter that Saturday night was going to be made up of the graduates of Saratoga in the class of '51. I immediately called Tom Halley, my old schoolmate, who is my neighbor now and invited him and his wife to my house Saturday night so we could all enjoy the program.

Oh Yes! I forgot to mention that Clyde said in his letter that his wife, the former Hazel Cook, had made him buy these television stations for her because Hazel often remarked "career before babies".

Through telephoning, writing letters, and a lot of driving, Tom and I rounded up a lot of the old Togaites of the early 1950's to form a party at my home to watch Clyde's program. When Saturday night came, a large number of the old gang had assembled anxiously awaiting to view again lazy acting old Tub, side-burns Ashley, heart smasher Warren, not to mention gum chewing Huber, gad-about Barbara, low speaking Helen, piano playing Elinor, bashful Marthe, wise-crack Janet, oh yes, and that young s-o-u-t-h-e-r-n married girl Betty Scogin, that just arrived for the last year.

The first on the program for the evening was none other than John Ashley. The name of the program was Tex Ashley and His Ramblers. I guess John finally became a cowboy which was his high school ambition. Of course, the most important of the ramblers, was his wife Wanda and little boy, John Jr., who looks exactly as "Old Tex" of high school days, wearing long side-burns and that old slouchy git.

Next on the program was Elinor Kindred, formerly Johnson, playing the piano while Hazel was singing the popular songs of the day. Hazel mentioned at this time that Clyde and some of her old schoolmates back in Saratoga were going to be watching and for the ones on the program to tell something about their families. Elinor said she was married, of course we already knew that, and that Chuck was home with their twin boys.

Clyde, the master of ceremonies gave a short talk about the historic school days of the class of '51. He then introduced our red-headed girl Mrs. Jack Kessler, the former Barbara Simmons. Barbara said Jack was still working for an oil company there in New York and she was head distributor of the Avon Cosmetic Company.

One of the features of the program was a game between the Anderson Packers and the New York Professionals. The stellar playing of Howard (Tub) Liggett was the outstanding feature of the contest. After the game they brought Tub up for an interview. He was very anxious to introduce his wife to the television world. There stood Carol Huber munching on her chewing gum of which she always did have a habit.

The next feature of the program was also sports. It was the famous pole vaulting star Robert Warren better known as Bob. He can out do his old school record. Bob is now New York's best pole vaulter.

The rest of the class were interviewed for the remainder of the program. The first to be interviewed was Janet Lyons. She said she was secretary to her four star general brother, Jack, who was stationed in Tokyo with the Air Force. She was in New York, reporting to the United Nations.

The next on the program was Martha Smiley who is now owner of Sach's Fifth Avenue Dress Shop. She had obtained this shop through much work and saving and is now doing fine. Martha mentioned that Helen Suddeth was working at her store. Clyde then interviewed Helen. She said she was in charge of the modeling girls.

On September 1, 1939 a group of 14 children enrolled in the first grade of the Saratoga school. They were Clyde Carpenter, Roger Chaffin, Kathleen Coryell, Clarence Godwin, Harry Godwin, Carol Huber, Elinor Johnson, Carl Lake, John Leaver, Paul Matchett, Laurence Roberts, Martha Smiley, Barbara Simmons, and Max Warstler.

All went well until February when Miss Alice Taylor, the teacher, passed away. The new teacher Mrs. Geraldine Toohy replaced her. Mrs. Toohy taught them the remainder of the first grade and all of the second grade. They then moved to room two. Mrs. Gertrude Warren was the teacher in the third and fourth grades. They were now ready for room three. In the fifth grade the teacher was Dale Marsh. Mrs. Brissey taught them in the sixth grade. At the end of the sixth grade they were promoted to the assembly and the seventh grade.

As school opened on September 1, 1944, nineteen very scared students filed into the assembly feeling very conspicuous. The new seventh grade were John Ashley, Ivan Cash, Ida Cash, Clyde Carpenter, Marie Croyle, Vernon Fields, Lilly Gray, Carol Huber, Doris Jackson, Bob Jesseup, Elinor Johnson, John Leaver, Howard Liggett, Janet Lyons, Norma Magill, Paul Matchett, Deloris McDaniels, Martha Myers, Barbara Simmons.

Their biggest worries were their lessons and the seniors. They carried on through the eighth grade with little difficulty.

As freshmen they went through the ordeal of initiation, but they survived. Then came the sophomore year when they received their class sweaters of which they were very proud.

Then as juniors they received their class rings of which they were even prouder and the class play which took much hard work but was fun.

Now the group is classified as seniors and this year there will be many activities too numerous to mention. Now as seniors they feel very different than those poor little seventh graders of 1944 and the least of their worries are their lessons.

Janet Lyons
Clyde Carpenter

PROPHECY (concluded)

The last to be interviewed was Betty Scogin who was already married before she came to Saratoga. She said they had moved back to Alabama on a large plantation which her husband now owned. It just so happened that she was in New York visiting relatives when she heard about the program.

As this was the last to be interviewed, Clyde invited all of his Saratoga schoolmates to come and visit his program anytime they were in New York.

After the program was over we decided they had a bright future. Possibly their success might be due to their early high school training of how to get what they wanted and still get along very well.

THE SENIOR CLASS OF '51

We, the Senior Class of '51, Saratoga School, of the city of Saratoga, county of Randolph, and the state of Indiana, being of sound mind and memory, do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be our last will and testament, hereby revoking any will or wills heretofore made by us.

- First: To the Saratoga School, as a whole, we wish a speedy recovery from shock in seeing the Juniors in our seats next year.
- Second: To the faculty of Saratoga, we express our gratitude for their help, patience, and guidance.
- Third: To the Juniors we give, with some misgiving, the north assembly seats.
- Fourth: To the Sophomores we bequeath our excellent grades and our ability to always agree.
- Fifth: To the Freshmen we leave all the will power it takes to become a Senior and our winning ways.
- SIXTH: As individuals we bequeath the following:

I, John Ashley, will my beard to Bill Carpenter and my western tendencies to Leslie Barkdull.

I, Clyde Carpenter, will my height to Tom Halley and my driving ability to Max Warstler.

I, Hazel Cook, will my tiny features to Jean Whiteman and my ability to get home early to Mary Warstler.

I, Carol Huber, will my typing skill to Carl Lake and my chewing gum to Mr. Hargrave.

I, Elmer Johnson, will my ability to get a man to Charlene Cultice and my ability to always leave things where they don't belong to Jean Sheirling.

I, Howard Liggett, will my (pardon the understatement) big feet and my height to Bill Cook.

I, Janet Lyons, will my slim figure to Janice Wagner and my quiet ways to Shirley Lovel.

I, Barbara Simmons will my typing skill to Judy Halley and my lady-like ways to my sister Joyce, who needs them.

I, Maratha Smiley, will my ability to always have a man to Joyce Barkdull any my sewing skill to Kay Girton.

I, Helen Budduth, will my excess knowledge to Ruth Clark and my typing skill to Shirley Isenbarger.

I, Betty Scogin, will my big brown eyes and southern accent to Beverly Rhinehart. Look at the results!

I, Robert Warren, will my ability to skip school to any underclassman who thinks they can get away with it.

In witness whereof, we, the Saratoga Seniors, have set our hand and seal hereto this twentieth day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty-one. (1951) Hazel Cook

Juniors

Then there's Joan,
Who likes to go to school,
She works very hard,
And abides the golden rule.

Glamour boy Halley,
He must be a fool,
He chases the girls,
From almost any school.

Next comes David,
Play boy Whaley,
He gets his lessons,
"When!" almost daily.

First comes Reva,
Our laughing girl,
She has a pal,
From Redkey now.

Next comes Carl,
Our dark headed boy,
He wishes, some day,
To become a cow-boy.

Then comes Shirley,
Our basketball fan,
She has for her lover,
A red-devil man.

Next comes Lydia,
Who has others attractions,
She wears a ring,
That comes from Jackson.

Poem written

Next comes Melva,
Our girl with a smile,
To make a success,
She works all the while.

Last comes Max,
He has a flame,
From Jackson School
What is her name?

Our colorful band dressed in blue and red uniforms have participated in many events this year. September 28 we traveled to Winchester for the first Lion's Street Fair. By October 28 we were all warmed up for the annual Mradi Gras at Winchester. We felt very proud of ourselves because we were the first band in the parade. The following Tuesday, October 31, Albany invited us to their Halloween Festivities. We had a grand time with confetti and pranks.

November 18 will always bring memories of a very exciting day. We left at 5:31 A.M. and did not return until 11:00 P.M. This was Indiana University's first High School Band Day. We did everything from eating lunch in the stadium, playing and marching, to seeing a football game.

The band plays for some of the home basketball games. Now is the time to pay tribute to our faithful twirlers who stage a performance for us at this time. Odema Girton, our drum majorette works diligently training these girls. We have 27 twirlers and 19 band members.

On December 11, 1949, our choir took part in a Christmas Sing held in the Winchester School Auditorium. Our group presented "Twas the Night Before Christmas".

We gave a program in the school auditorium on December 21, 1949. As the choir and different groups sang, a pageant was presented. The audience participated by helping in the singing of familiar Christmas Carols.

In the spring on March 23, 1950, we presented an operatta, "The Gypsy Troubadour".

All our activities were combined programs of Saratoga-Jefferson High Schools and were under the direction of Miss Marjorie Peters.

The 1950-51 basketball season ended with the Saratoga Warriors having a record of nine wins and twelve defeats, which was ninth in the county standing. The warriors were defeated in the first round of the County tournament by Ridgeville and in the Sectional was defeated by McKinley in the second round.

The two boys who won honors during the year were Lowell Frazee, who earned the right to have his name inscribed on the foul trophy with a .649 percentage; Howard Liggett, whose 33 points in one game in the tournament established a new scoring record for the Randolph County Sectional.

The basketball letters, which were awarded by the Red Clad Club were presented to Howard Liggett, Lowell Frazee, John Ashley, Max Warstler, Clyde Carpenter, Bob Warren, Tom Halley, Jerry Ison, and student manager Stanley Smiley. Jackets were awarded to Howard Liggett, Lowell Frazee, Bob Warren, Clyde Carpenter, and John Ashley.

The other boys who did not make letters but played on the second squad were Bob Schleshty, Dale Simmons, Donald Whitted, David Rossner, Gene Jackson, Leslie Barkdull, Tom Sommers, Bill Carpenter.
